The Belfast Celtic Society was established in 2003 to encourage an appreciation, knowledge and awareness among the general public of the historical and cultural heritage of Belfast Celtic Football and Athletic Club.

The Belfast Celtic Society is an inclusive, non-sectarian, anti-racist organisation in the spirit of the Belfast Celtic Football and Athletic Club. Membership of the Society is open to individuals irrespective of age, gender, ethnic identity, nationality, sexual orientation, race, religion or political opinion.

Gift aid: If you are a UK taxpayer, the Society can claim your tax back on your annual membership fee at no extra cost to you, making your support worth over a quarter more to the Society. If you are agreeable
